Resolution 2009-01-01

RESOLUTION IN APPRECIATION TO TEXAS PARKS AND WILDLIFE DEPARTMENT

WHEREAS, the Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies convened its 99th Annual Meeting in Austin, the beautiful capital of the Great State of Texas, on September 13-16, 2009; and,

WHEREAS, the amenities of the host city and its gracious citizens provided a wonderful atmosphere in which to conduct business, reconnect with colleagues, and make new friends; and,

WHEREAS, the remarkable biological diversity of the area including the largest urban bat colony in North America, was a reminder of our mission to conserve fish and wildlife for the use and enjoyment of all of our citizens; and

WHEREAS, Executive Director Carter Smith and his outstanding staff of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department provided generously of their time and support and were responsive to both the anticipated and unanticipated needs of the conference attendees with grace, patience and good humor;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies extends its sincere appreciation and gratitude to Carter Smith, his staff and the city of Austin, Texas for their generous hospitality and outstanding support for a very Successful 99th Annual Meeting.

Adopted by acclamation September 16, 2009.
