Resolution 2012-06-06

IN APPRECIATION OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA
DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES

WHEREAS, the great State of South Carolina and the sun-swept shores of Hilton Head Island provided a naturally inspiring venue for the participants of the Association of Fish & Wildlife Agencies' 102nd Annual Meeting to invigorate our minds and refresh our spirits; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina, with its diverse fish and wildlife resources, unique ecological habitats and breathtaking landscapes, reflects the abundance of natural resources in North America, wherein lies the core of our nation's conservation values, stewardship ethic and quality of life for all citizens; and

WHEREAS, the plentiful opportunities in South Carolina for hunting, recreational shooting, fishing, boating, wildlife-viewing and other exciting wildlife-associated activities remind us of the need to ensure the sustainability of our natural resources for the use and enjoyment of our citizens; and

WHEREAS, Colonel Alvin Taylor, Director of the South Carolina Department of Natural Resources and his first-rate staff excelled in their roles as conference hosts and addressed attendees with the utmost in grace, southern hospitality and good humor;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Association extends its heartfelt appreciation to Col. Taylor and all of his DNR staff who assisted with the meeting; as well as to the people of Hilton Head Island low country coast and the State of South Carolina for a very successful 2012 AFWA Annual Conference.
