

10-7-1919

Resolution 1919-11-13 Praise for the University of Washington School of Fisheries

Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.law.msu.edu/afwa_reso

Part of the Environmental Law Commons, and the Natural Resources Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies, Resolution 1919-11-13 Praise for the University of Washington School of Fisheries (1919),
Available at: http://digitalcommons.law.msu.edu/afwa_reso/1067

This Conference Proceeding is brought to you for free and open access by the The (International) Association of Fish & Wildlife Agencies Conservation Collection at Digital Commons at Michigan State University College of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Resolutions by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons at Michigan State University College of Law. For more information, please contact domannbr@law.msu.edu.

Whereas, It comes to the notice of this association that the state of Washington has established a school of fisheries, an undertaking which has promise of inestimable economic meaning, nation-wide, and which coincidentally is the fruition of hope long felt for the establishment of such institutions by this association; therefore, be it

Resolved, That hearty congratulations and thanks be hereby extended to the faculty of the University of Washington state for bridging this chasm of long-felt want, with expression of hope for the complete success in the enterprise.

Whereas, It comes to the notice of this association that Cornell University of New York state has established a school of fisheries and a class for game propagation, undertakings which have promise of inestimable economic meaning, nation-wide, and which coincidentally is the fruition of hope long felt for the establishment of such institutions by this association; therefore, be it

Resolved, That hearty congratulations and thanks are hereby extended to the faculty of Cornell university of New York state, for bridging this chasm of long-felt want, with expression of sincere hope for complete success in the enterprise.

Whereas, The administration of the Hon. J. Quincy Ward, as president of the International Association of Game, Fish and Conservation Commissioners has been able and efficient, and of permanent good to the interests of conservation throughout the American contingent, and

Whereas, Mr. Ward has labored long and zealously for the conservation of the natural wealth of this continent; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the International Association of Game, Fish and Conservation Commissioners, That we view the accomplishment of his administration as president with pride and satisfaction and that we endorse his administration as having been one of the ablest since its organization.

The president announced the appointment of the following committee provided for by the resolution to investigate as to the migration of birds from the United States to Mexico, Central and South America:

John H. Wallace, Jr., Alabama, chairman; Carlos Avery, Minnesota; E. Lee LeCompte, Maryland; T. Gilbert Pearson, New York; Dr. E. H. Forbush, Massachusetts.

The convention adjourned, sine die.