Resolution 2015-03-04

HONORING THE NATIONAL CONSERVATION LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE UPON ITS 10TH YEAR

WHEREAS, the National Conservation Leadership Institute is a world-class, inter-organizational leadership development opportunity with a goal of advancing the practice of leadership throughout the natural resource management in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the National Conservation Leadership Institute has successfully graduated 9 Cohorts of conservation professionals from state fish and wildlife agencies, as well as federal agencies, non-governmental organizations, industry-related organizations and tribes, and will begin the residency of its 10th Cohort this October, 2015; and

WHEREAS, the National Conservation Leadership Institute's success can be attributed to the initiative of its Founders; and the effort put forth annually by the program's Board, Sponsors, Faculty, Staff and Alumni; and

WHEREAS, this Association should recognize this program's impact on the conservation professionals who have benefitted from its efforts, and their resulting impact on their respective fields of work.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies formally acknowledges and extends its appreciation to the National Conservation Leadership Institute, its Founders, Board, Sponsors, Faculty, Staff, and Alumni for their collective efforts to expand and advance leadership capacity throughout the conservation community, and for the challenging and significant work they have undertaken in natural resources management.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies, at its 105th annual meeting, formally recognizes and honors the National Conservation Leadership Institute upon its 10th year for its effects throughout natural resource management.
