ing the industry, to be based upon the laws of those states having the longest experience with the question and that such laws should include:

1. The licensing of the game breeder.
2. The tagging of the game under the authority of the state.
3. The inspection of game farms, reports, etc.

The President, Mr. Alexander: Now, gentlemen, you have heard the reading of the resolution; what is your pleasure?

Mr. Leavens: I move the adoption of the resolution.

(Whereupon the motion was duly put and unanimously carried.)

Mr. Burnham read the fifth resolution as follows:

(Free Game Farms for Soldiers)

5. Resolved, That the International Association of Game and Fish Commissioners recommend to the National Government that suitable tracts of land in every state in the Union, to be acquired by purchase where necessary, be set aside and devoted to returned injured soldiers and sailors for operation by them as game farms, to the end that wild land in the future may be made to yield its maximum food supply and advantages of recreation and health to the nation.

The President, Mr. Alexander: Gentlemen, you have heard the reading of the resolution. What is the pleasure of the society with regard to it?

Mr. Woods: I move its adoption.

(Whereupon the motion was duly put and unanimously carried.)

Mr. Burnham read the sixth resolution, as follows:

(Plant Black Walnuts)

6. Whereas, The disappearance of the black walnut from the United States is now being very greatly accelerated by the demands of the United States Government, and a valuable timber asset is about to disappear, now be it
